Brief explanations regarding the Pro Agens's Annual Subscription Package

Informator – monthly hardcopy (printed) edition

A specialized monthly edition, which contains texts from the field of accounting and financial reporting with special reference to the transition to the new IFRS in application from 2025. In the magazine, in addition to selected texts from the field of financial reporting, we regularly publish texts on taxation, status law, trade, labor relations, ...

In addition to the operations of profit entities, the publication also covers the operations of the non-profit and public sectors (budget users, ...).

Info register – regularly updated (e-edition)

Working information arranged in seven parts (review of useful regulations, salary data, diaries, payment receipts, exchange rates, foreign exchange payment code books, withholding tax, skibor, euribor...) with regular updates.

Pro Economy – annual edition (printed edition; participants of dedicated online trainings for an annual account receive an e-edition)

A publication that is fully dedicated to the preparation of the annual account and financial reports for trading companies, taking into account the different bases of financial reporting (IFRS/IAS, IFRS for small and medium-sized entities), then for independent contractors and non-profit entities and understands the annual tax reporting for all bond categories.
